Art Imitating Life

"My name is Raymond Reddington. The United States government has placed me atop the country's list of most-wanted fugitives for a colorful and not uninteresting assortment of crimes, most of which I have committed. That's who I am.

You, in turn, by my estimation are 11 of the finest investigative journalists in the world. I'm here to tell you a story. I'm sure you recognize many of the faces behind me. They are among the most powerful men and women on the planet.

They are also part of a global conspiracy, a shadowy organization that spans across every continent, and has for the last three decades, consisting of leaders in world government and the private sector. Some call this group "The Cabal".

The world you live in is the world that want you to think you live in. They start wars, create chaos. And when it suits them, they resolve it.

Cabal members will move more money in the next quarter than the World Bank will in the next year. Their alliance affects sea change in every aspect of human life... the value and distribution of commodities, money, weapons, water, fuel, the food we eat to live, the information we rely on to tell us who we are."

SCENE FROM SEASON 2 Episode 22 of The Blacklist™

I do not know if Neil Keenan could have stated it up better himself. Thank you, James Spader and the entire The Blacklist™ group for summing up the conspiracy fact. Keep doing your craft, you speak a lot of truth.

To be a globalist, one has to think about not just one path, but a series of interconnected and supporting paths.

The threads to create the tapestry they desire of global financial, sociological, resource deployment, population controls – take on various faces through any number of means.

Yet underneath, Neil Keenan and his team have most assuredly exposed not just what they are but more importantly who they are and what the goal of the group is. Neil asks some very pointed questions that never get answered. Why is no one listening?

In no particular order, here is a list of these threads that he has exposed

- World Economic Forum
- George Soros
- United Nations
- World Bank
- Bank of International Settlements
- Vanguard
- International Monetary Foundation
- Central Banks all owned by the Rothschilds
- Presidents of USA, France,
- Prime Ministers of Malaysia, Japan
- Monarchs from Netherlands, England, Japan
- J.P. Morgan – Jamie Dimon

Then there are the quasi-legal groups like the IRS, FEMA, FDA etc. But here follows the best summary ever broadcast about what is referred to as THE Cabal.

Most of the time it has been Neil alone on this odyssey, with a very small team. They make the world leaders in politics and corporations take notice.

On his limited resources, and mostly with his own money. The establishment has stolen from him, promises made by those in power never kept.

They have tried to take his life at least fourteen times. Could you keep fighting for all humanity if you repeatedly had your money stolen?

What is even more amazing though is not his fighting spirit but the fact that so many that have read, followed from afar could have stepped in to help Neil and remain silent. Cowards.

It is only going to end in one of two fashions. Either people quit sitting on their hands and support this man or all humanity dies.

I bet he has received many tempting offers to walk away that no one will ever know about. There is so much to gain when he succeeds.

The Truth Will Out.

Indonesia Here I Come

This is the abridged story of a man that has spent a lifetime fighting in many different arenas on many continents and taken on monarchs, governments, financial institutions and dark forces that are running the world.

Neil Francis Keenan, most of the time alone, stands upon the precipice of victory in a capacity that has never been recorded in the history of humanity.

There are points that history records as critical. This is one of them and it is time for you to know what he has done while humanity has been sleeping.

Amanah

This is a term of Arabic origin that is used to signify someone that is entrusted with the wealth of others and imbued with the wisdom and support of these same individuals to grow the funds and use them in a manner that benefits a defined portion of society.

Many Golden Dragons and Elders from Indonesia elected Neil Francis Keenan as the Amanah. He is the only person elected to this position. Ever.

The Amanah holds not just titular recognition and prestige, but a tremendous spiritual level, legal authority and financial role in leading a society through a multitude of changes.

This was evidenced in the completion of the seven rituals Neil undertook which directly led to his election.

This shifts the existing framework and reference points to a singular path of freedom from the Bretton Woods Agreement and subsequent renewal (whereby the gold, silver, platinum, gems and other assets of the far east were taken and used throughout the West).

The East was never allowed to participate in the direction, aim, nor use of the funds that they provided. Never.

This document will provide a primer for both the uninitiated as well as the close follower of the activities of the man that was perhaps best described as “A terror” by the former Secretary General of the United Nations.

Self described as an Angry Leprechaun mixed with Tasmanian Devil it may be best to let you read and hope to understand not just the man but also the journey taken.

Without him, humanity is dead as we know it. He knows that and feels the gravitas of that with every breath he takes.

Becoming Amanah

When you work hard to build something, not everyone around you is happy for you. There are many people that in fact want to take everything away from you.

Thus, it has always been a war, a universal condition and is exhibited on a grand scale today with governments, unelected entities and media. Their success means tearing you down and having your “exceptionalism” fit their mold. The higher the risk, the deeper their intent to take what you have done.

Being elected Amanah is not only about success. It is also about integrity and overcoming not just adversity but the entirety of the existing world wanting to either take the money entrusted or eliminate the words freedom, individuality and harmony - ripped out of your life.

It always starts with crisis. How one responds determines what happens next. Those that grow powerful from not creating and developing real wealth ingratiate themselves with taking that of others. Being Amanah demands a response to this lunacy, and his response started to wake up the world.

*Hear me now
Oh thou bleak and unbearable world,
Thou art base and debauched as can be;
And a knight with his banners all bravely unfurled
Now hurls down his gauntlet to thee!
I am I, Don Quixote,
The Lord of La Mancha, ?
My destiny calls and I go,
And the wild winds of fortune
Will carry me onward,
Oh whithersoever they blow.
Whithersoever they blow,
Onward to glory I go!*

Don Quixote: Man of La Mancha

The Rituals

President Soekarno was appointed Amanah after World War 2. The fact that Neil was elected is itself an amazing accomplishment.

No one had ever been elected to this position before. Ever. The process of being elected though, well that is the stuff of legend. Spiritual legend.

A series of rituals needed to be successfully completed, seven of them in fact. Only problem is that no one had ever successfully completed the first one. All who attempted were rendered blind, deaf or dead.

These rituals each served a distinct purpose, to align spiritual with intellectual and physical.

The Elders designed these to see how elevated Neil's frequencies would go. As with many rituals it begins with a bath.

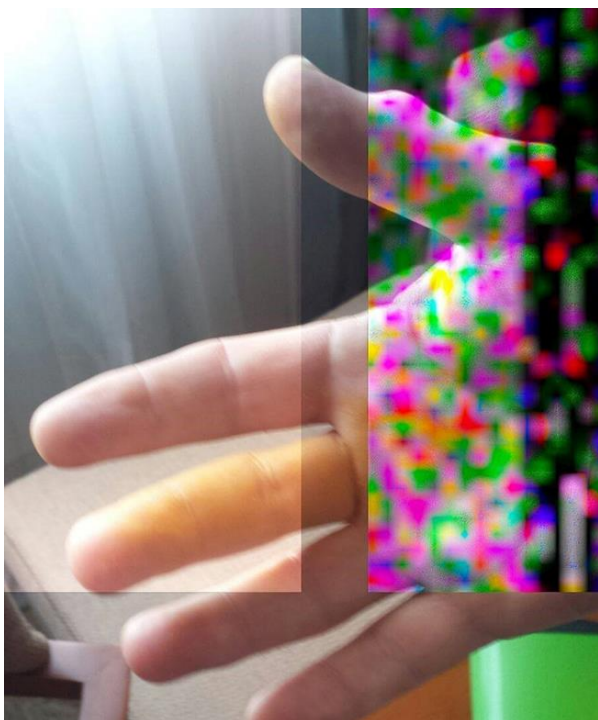

2 Neil in his flower bath. Ritual No. 1

Water that had been blessed by the Elders through prayer and filled with flower petals was to test Neil's ability to elevate his frequency capacity to increase his frequency to open pathways to increased and heightened sense of awareness. This is often seen or defined by others as having an aura.

Although he was uneasy and self-conscious about a room full of people watching him taking a flower bath, all that changed when he finally got out, drip dried with petals falling into the puddles at his feet... as he was now emanating a "Golden Aura" that all present could clearly see! He was shining!

The Elders present just smiled. The BATH was a success.

Neil had now set him apart from any other person in history. The first ritual had successfully concluded.

3 Goldfinger. Notice the image of Soekarno in the pixelation on the right of this photo.

Neil was just happy to get his clothes back on and hoped that he wouldn't have to do that ever again. But the physical effects of this blessed Bath would materialize later when he became "Gold Finger" and before he was to leave Indonesia on his trip home.

The body simply needs to physically adjust to a higher vibration level and that takes time, cleansing and lots of rest.

Since his Bath, Neil's spiritual and psychic abilities have also improved considerably. His telepathic communication capabilities have seriously increased and much more.

The first ritual was passed and he was still in one piece. Remember, none had ever successfully completed this first ritual. There was a sequence to follow, but it took sometimes three or four days to bring the people together to facilitate the tests as well as moving a large number of Elders to witness many of them.

Now it was time to head to Blitar, East Java, the birthplace of President Soekarno.

It was early evening when they arrived at the Hotel Tugu Sri Lestari in Blitar, which is the same hotel that President Soekarno stayed whenever he returned to his home town.

A member of the group met Neil at the hotel and told him that he would be staying in Soekarno's room and spending the night sleeping in Soekarno's bed. That was no problem for Neil as it was already late and he was tired.

Neil was taken to the room and told that he might be visited between 2am to 4am, but to not be afraid. That was a nice thing to say before going to bed. In another hotel about two blocks away were the Elders that came for what would be the second ritual / test.

Of course, Neil was peaked with the “what next” curiosity but nothing else happened so at bedtime he locked the room door and propped his suitcase against it, just in case.

Nothing was going to get through that door without making a noise. He then climbed into bed and was out like the lights and into the darkness of sleep in just a few minutes.

It was a restless sleep and somewhere in the dead of night he abruptly woke up! The room was strangely COLD. The hairs on his arms were standing straight up! It was pitch BLACK but he sensed that “something” was standing next to his bed, like a gigantic menacing BLACK apparition.

Most people would have wet the bed or soiled their shorts sensing this monstrous thing. Not Neil. He just sat up, looked at the Thing and shouted at it, “Who do you think you are?! This is My Room! You don’t belong here! Get the hell out of here! NOW!”

Talk about being “fearless”, Neil stared down the Beast and pointed him to the door. The shouted demands continued until the thing backed away knowing that his scary mission had failed, so it retreated “through” the door, ran through the door... but as it parted it SLAMMED the door so loud that it woke up Neil’s team, the Elders and had hotel security come running to Neil’s room clambering “Are you alright?!”

Neil told everyone what had happened. Everyone then crawled back into their beds, wondering a bit, but knowing strange things do happen in the dark of night.

Neil also climbed back into his high perch, doused the lights and returned to blissful sleep till morning now realizing that he had successfully completed the second ritual.

There would be time to reflect in the morning, but this was time to rest. Neil Keenan

4 President Soekarno's gravesite

The next night Neil was chauffeured to Soekarno's mausoleum and was let into the site well after closing hours.

A member of the group named Yunus led Neil to Soekarno's grave and they both knelt in silent prayer before this great man.

At the end of the prayer and the traditional sprinkling of flower petals on the grave, Neil was asked to look at the large anthracite stone at the head of the grave.

Anthracite is rock that is up to 98% pure carbon. This headstone was un-carved but was multi-faceted so that it reflected light in many unusual ways. Anthracite of course, with high carbon content allows for numerous spiritual influences and has been used in many religious and spiritual rites. This headstone was known to be highly spiritually inhabited.

So Neil did as he was told and leaned forward to inspect the headstone. At first he noticed like something was moving in the stone, as if it were alive inside. Then the head of a massive lion congealed in the stone right in front of Neil and stared directly into his eyes.

Neil was not afraid at seeing this apparition, but instead he gave it a welcoming salutation and thanked the lion for being the spiritual guardian over the earthly remains of President Soekarno.

He thanked the lion again for coming forth to see him... and with that the lion image faded back into the black stone.

Yunus was the first to ask Neil if he had seen anything as he stepped back. Neil just said, "I saw the Friendly Lion." Yunus smiled, knowing that very few people ever get to see this Protector. The Elders too were satisfied. The third ritual was completed successfully.

Following the prayer session at Soekarno's grave mausoleum another spiritual session was held late at night in President Soekarno's old office in the anteroom to Neil's bedroom.

Neil was ushered into the room by Nelu and Tomo (members of Neil's team). Yunus was already there at the head of a semi-circle of flickering candles.

Neil was asked to sit on the floor addressing Yunus, but grumbled that his creaky (old basketball injuries) knees would start complaining after two minutes sitting cross-legged... so they found him a low mahogany bench. The room became quiet and still as they sat there in meditation.

Yunus began whispering a ritual incantation and after a few moments his body stiffened and he sat straight up. He then spoke... but it was not his voice! Neil was taken aback for a moment as he never experienced "channeling" before and this was a small surprise.

Most people have heard about séances and clairvoyants speaking with the Dead, but it is significantly different when you are THERE, especially for the first time. And this startling voice change raised Neil's furrowed eyebrows. He began wondering what was happening.

The voice coming out of Yunus then told Tomo to leave the room as what he was about to reveal was for Neil alone. Nelu stayed if translations were needed.

The clear voice then said, "I am Soekarno." (Blink, Blink! That was unexpected!)

"I am here to congratulate you Mr. Keenan, and to tell you many things about being the Amanah."

This was the first time that Neil had been called "the AMANAH". He now leaned forward and listened intently to what the spirit of President Soekarno was saying to him.

This was the First Amanah spiritually acknowledging the New AMANAH... Neil Francis Keenan.

There was no ceremony, no anointment with scented blessed water, no flowers strewn at Neil's feet. There was just two amazing spirits meeting together, talking and joking, and becoming friends.

Much was revealed to Neil but that was for him alone. More would come later. Soekarno did say that "Whatever Neil wants, you are to give it to him, no questions asked."

Soekarno also told Neil that he had to be very careful as there were those out to make trouble for him, but that Soekarno would be with Neil always. (And that has been the case in repeated contacts and conversations between the two Amanahs ever since.)

This ritual, though brief, was the confirmation that Neil had passed what no one else could have done.

He was recognized and honored by the most important spiritual being who knew all about being the Amanah... President Soekarno and with the promise of continued support from his trusted mentor.

Neil was humbled by the significance of this meeting... and happy that the rituals (I still did not know they were rituals) were coming to a conclusion.

There were, of course, a few more stumbling blocks down the road, but tonight was a good night.

It should be understood that rituals of this nature are often done in the dark and in secluded areas. This involves the summoning of spiritual entities and the manifesting of physical objects. So the next ritual, in the presence of multiple Elders and Spiritual Masters was again surreal.

6 Ritual test 5 is converting a bag of dirt into a blooming flower.

For those who have never seen “manifesting” before, it is a bit of a shocker. Objects or entities appear virtually out of “thin air” or in this case “water”.

The spiritual explanation of this is that higher dimensional beings through intent are able to lower the frequency vibration of a higher dimensional object to such an extent that it solidifies in the 3rd dimension.

Simply the process is one of reducing a higher vibration to a lower one and in the process some heat is released. Manifested objects are normally warm when first received or give off some visible light, such as Neil’s “golden glowing” experience.

This ritual test involved these spiritual elements. After what seemed to be a long time involved in invoking prayers, Yunus and Tomo came down from their rocky Tomo fell apart on the rocks)..

perches and handed Neil “a bag of dirt”!

Neil is now standing there with “His bag of dirt”, seriously contemplating throwing it at Nelu because of the inconvenience he was currently experiencing.

Yunus then explained that Neil was to drop the bag of dirt onto the ground and see what would happen... if anything. So everyone gathered around Neil with their cellphone LED’s shining. Neil raised his bag of dirt on high and ceremoniously plopped it onto the ground.

The curious on-lookers didn’t breathe. They waited for a few minutes in silence. Tomo then slowly opened the bag. Yunus and the other Elders looked in. Inside the bag a beautiful flower appeared! Neil peeked in and saw a white, yellow and black colored bloom. “Did you see that!” was exchanged between nodding heads. Where in the World did that come from!?

The Elders told Neil that this was a “sign” for them to continue. So up to the rocks and more prayers... and more anticipatory silent darkness. Tomo was muttering to spirits in the darkness and all else was quiet.

The darkness dragged on. Finally, Tomo came down off his rock and took Neil by the hand and conducted a transfer of spiritual energy into him as a conclusion to the ritual ceremony.

Then Nelu shouted, “Sir, look! There is a light in the water!”

And sure enough, rising up from the bottom of the river was a clear white light.

Neil saw it as a swirling stick (it was in a tavern unlike the Orb) but everyone else saw it as a glowing white orb (swirling white stick was a staff and the other was an orb) which came bobbing up and out of the water, lighting up the whole surroundings! The funny thing was that the “light staff” was in a different location than the Orb! And only Neil saw it.

Neil kept insisting that it was a “light stick”, so Nelu told him that what Neil was seeing was at a different vibration than anyone else there. That was what he was supposed to “see.” Following Tomo’s energy transfer to Neil, Yunus had to recharge Tomo as he was exhausted. Then it was time to go.

“Oh sure.” Said Neil, “Over slippery stones and along an unseen jungle trail IN THE DARK with no Light!” The Elders just smiled and said, “Mari! (Come).”

So the neophytes slowly slipped and slid back to solid ground and as they cautiously clamored along the trail was lit all along the jungle floor, the entire way back to their vehicles!

This sometimes happens around Ascended Masters or Angelic Beings, whose aura is a bright white light. This was obvious to Yunus and Tomo that they were being accompanied by someone very special on their trek back through the jungle. They knew the meaning of this honor being bestowed on Neil. Neil however, was just tired and glad to have something lighting his path.

Talk about blown minds of people not used to supernatural things, it was a big-eyed trek in stupefied silence through thick jungle in the middle of the night.

None were willing to talk... being mesmerized by a real paranormal happening of “enlightenment” along their Path, especially wide-eyed Charles and Nelu.

It was a quiet drive back to their hotel. Neil was smiling and thinking “that was fun” but not admitting that it was one of the strangest experiences he had ever seen. He pinched himself for sure. This ritual was passed surprisingly easily.

But it had been a long dark and eventful night, so it was a time for a rest and reflection. Another ritual test would be coming soon.

After completing the rituals at President Soekarno’s ancestral house and offices, the entourage made their way from Blita to the ancient palace of the King of Boko (Keraton Ratu Boko), a sprawling 16-hectare fortress and temples made from white limestone and black volcanic basalt dated back to before 792 AD.

This beautiful hilltop complex is three miles south of Yogyakarta city and is a major tourist attraction. But Neil was not there as a tourist.

Yunus led Neil across the grass to a solitary flat stone. He was told that a former beneficial Queen of Boko used to hold audiences there and meditate while enjoying a cool breeze and the gorgeous view. Neil just sat there while Nelu, Yunus, Tomo and Charles sat on the grass some 30-meters away.

As Neil patiently sat there, suddenly a strong gust of wind came up and blew his hat right off! The boys scrambled to retrieve it and all settled calmly back down. Only Neil was hit by that wind, so maybe the Spirits of the Keraton just wanted to see his face.

A few moments later a small whirlwind collected leaves from the nearby trees and showered them upon Neil.

Again not on the Elders, Nelu or Charles. Things were now getting spiritual, but more was to come.

So Neil sat there wondering “What next?” When three chickens came out of the jungle undergrowth, pecking the ground and wandering about until they came directly in front of Neil. They stopped and looked at Neil. Neil looked at the chickens. Then the chickens did the “Chicken Dance”!

Neil just sat there watching the three Chicken Chorus Line Routine and wondering to himself “it would have been better if three beautiful Indonesian maidens were dancing instead of chickens.”

The chickens tired quickly from the strutting, high kicks and flapping wings, so after their short routine, they scurried back into the bushes. Neil wasn't sure if he should clap or not.

Silent moments passed again, allowing everyone time to reflect on what was happening. That contemplation was interrupted when three goats came skipping out of the jungle!

The goats strolled up in front of Neil. Looked directly at him. Neil looked back. Then the three goats did the “Goat Hop” routine! They jumped in the air and jumped at each other. They spun this way and that in what was a frolicking and humorous dance. Neil smiled and thanked them for their enjoyable entertainment. The three goats then hopped and jumped their way back into the jungle.

Shortly thereafter three sheep sauntered out of the jungle, walked before Neil, and just stared at him for a minute or so, then went “BAAAAAA”. Neil went “BAAAAAA” back. The sheep turned and swaggered back into the bushes.

By this time Neil realized that this whole show was another rite of passage where he received the blessings and approval of the ancient Kings and Queens of the Boko Empire.

This was indeed a spiritual honor never ever bestowed on a foreigner before, much less even local Javanese Royalty. This was a very special and auspicious occasion.

With the blessing dances over, Yunus signaled Neil that it was time to go. But there was one more parting gift. As Neil got up he was surrounded by a flock of white doves. The doves followed him as he approached the main exit gate. Neil was again surrounded by hundreds of White Doves, circling him with out-stretched wings in an awesome fluttering display.

Pictures taken showed birds with their wings fully extended guarding Neil from behind as he left the Keraton Ratu Boko. This was a beautiful and fitting end to this ritual. From here the Initiate and crew would travel back to Semarang for instructions from the Sultan and prepare for the final ritual.

The site chosen was the Pantai Cangkring beach due South from Jogjakarta.

So about mid-night a dozen cars full of Indonesian Elders arrived at this sandy beach for the last ritual of gifting the Spirits that had tested Neil in his ritual tasks.

The gathered Elders then presented Neil and Yunus each a bamboo woven tray with blessed foods and flower offerings.

This traditional offering to the spirit world would be sent out to sea, and if accepted, portions would appear at three separate river locations along the South Java coast.

It was a pitch-black night with Neil and Yunus carefully carrying their offering to the shore.

Nelu was “live streaming” the event worldwide over Neil’s Facebook page and Thomas was handling the spot light, well almost, as in the process he stepped into a sand hole and took a dive for a moment.

After a few minutes everyone made it to wet sand and Yunus signaled to Neil to sit down next to him and place the offering in front of him like Yunus had done. Once seated, Yunus began prayers and a small wave rolled in, grabbed Neil’s offering and dragged it 10 meters closer to the sea.

But Yunus had not finished his prayer so he got up, picked up Neil’s tray and brought it back to him. He started his prayer again and again a wave came and took Neil’s offering another 10 meters away. Neil thought that this was great fun as he was “winning the race!”

Yunus then cheated by picking up his tray and moving it up with Neil's. The next wave took them both but Neil's tray was still in the lead going into the foaming mouth of a black sea, never to be seen again. Mission accomplished... almost... as it would be the next day for the three river outposts to confirm that they had received the offerings.

All confirmed that they HAD! MISSION COMPLETE! ALL RITUALS PASSED!

A few days later this arrived at Neil's hotel suite. The signed Amanah Agreement.

A Magical Day

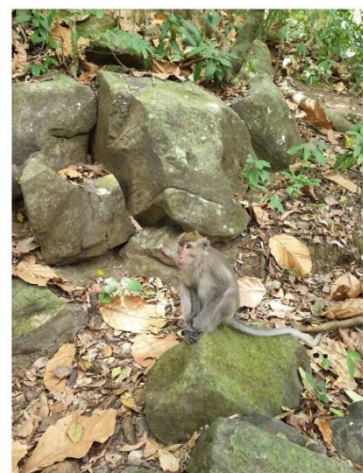

7 The bloody reminder of making fun of the Djinn. Note the faces it left behind with Neil's blood.

In between the sixth and seventh rituals, itself probably another unnamed or unexpected ritual were a series of events that defy logic and description. Seeing things that no human has seen, in rapid sequence. Djinn's and their King conversing with Neil, even reprimanding him for joking with them about the efficacy of their power.

Neil rescuing 40 thousand of them from a bunker using his Power stick for the first time. He still has a glow in his eyes when he looks at the shirt bearing the marks of the Djinn.

Climbing mountains where no path existed, seeing the great and wondrous entities that protect the bunkers and would not let anyone ever access them except those allowed to. There was a total eclipse of the sun, and it only affected Neil and those with him. There were no reports on any media of this meteorological phenomena as well. The talking Rock with a seat next to it that will tell you about the history of that mountain, if your frequency to receive the information is high enough. Many things that defy human logic, religion and our sense of order and

8 The Talking Rock in the center, with the seat on the left. If you are at an elevated frequency the rock will tell you the history of the mountain space in the universe revealed themselves to Neil that day. Easy to call it fantasy except that they were witnessed and recorded digitally.

There is only one way to view this union of the physical and temporal realms. Neil Francis Keenan is the Amanah. Being Amanah transcends these realms and the universe has long decided that this amazing man should bear the mantle of power. Amazing indeed Neil !

Amanah Not in Name Only

Neil is not just Amanah. He is also N1, also commonly referred to in the West as M1. He is in charge of the Global Accounts. This is the record of all the transactions that financially keep the world running on a fiscal basis. This is a massive entitlement, and was confirmed to him in December 2021.

Using the Black book of codes, and other documentation, he is able to trace the originations and subsequent deviations of the Global Account activities, and in his title, is the caretaker of these funds. They are to be directed to projects in Indonesia, Southeast Asia and eventually other parts of the world that will elevate humanity and undo the effects of over a thousand years of globalization enslavement.

The Black Book

The last thing the Governments, Banks and Cabal want is for you to know what they are doing. It is a far better thing that you should not fill your head with these realities and just trust them.

Neil Keenan was not only growing aware of the hidden realm of the financial world and waking up the sleeping masses. He was building an arsenal of weapons to take the enemy down.

The Black Book of Codes. This book opens up the screens of the BIS and other financial institutions allowing access to verify the existence of assets, including things like Kennedy Bonds, UST / FED reserve notes and $1 Million dollar notes.

Things that the Khazars and Cabal don't want you to know exist. The Black Book of Codes also would gain you access to transactions including illicit and illegal transactions. It was the cipher to the Global Accounts and its assets.

This really caused a stir when they found out that Neil had this. So much that banks and their dark masters created new codes. What they failed to realize is that Neil had the new codes within minutes of their creation. Neil Keenan has the old and new codes and has expressed his confidence in knowing that the thefts will no longer continue unnoticed. The legal group Neil is assembling in conjunction with the forensics and security people he has waiting for his authority to begin cleaning up is the very best there is.

Neil is armed with a great many tools and weapons in his quest to overhaul the world and truly save humanity. This includes the original Green Hilton Agreement signed by both Presidents Soekarno and Kennedy.

This was the document that Kennedy died over when he was assassinated 11 days after signing it and returning to America after his trip to Indonesia. As M1, President Soekarno of Indonesia was the signatory for the countries.

Per the Agreement, Soekarno was to give Global Accounts 140,000 tons of gold for U.S. Treasury gold backed notes. Kennedy was about to start cleaning his house. Starting with the CIA and the Federal Reserve.

M1 Meet Amanah

President Soekarno of Indonesia was designated the role of “M1” or “monetary controller,” as he was appointed by the nations of the world after World War II. In the time since Soekarno’s passing, the principal Asian depositors hadn’t assigned the role of M1 to a likely successor or remained undisclosed for decades.

The Elders then bequeathed Amanah Keenan the late President Soekarno’s gold-headed Scepter and his mystical Transfer of Power Stick – empowering Keenan, as principal trustee to open the Global Accounts hidden Bunkers and secure the gold, precious metals and gems assets, as well as collateral to ultimately return the financial control back to the East.

The official and legal election of a future “M1” – and perhaps the nature of that role was pre-determined in 2018 when Neil Keenan completed his seven spiritual rituals and was elected Amanah by the Indonesian Elders. In fact he was informed in December 2021 that he is officially M1. All that remains is for Neil to sign the papers upon his return to Indonesia.

The history behind the Dragon Family Global Collateral Accounts is vast and complex and reaches back some 250 years. For the purposes of this brief overview, we will focus on two key elements which are now headlining stories around the world: debt, and gold. The gold accumulated from hundreds of years of the Silk Road payments. The West wanted to steal it back. The East did not want to give it to them.

To showcase THE ONE – AMANAH NEIL KEENAN’S valor in his mission to secure the Global Accounts and open the Indonesian Bunkers, what follows here are some key events since 2009 when the Dragon Family initially appointed him as their Special Power Of Attorney.

For over 12 years, Keenan has searched for his stolen Dragon Family Financial Instruments (DFFI) that were entrusted with him. In his Trillion Dollar Lawsuit discoveries, Keenan tracked down his Dragon Family Financial Interest Federal Reserve Notes to the Vatican Slush Fund with his name on the ledger, which were stolen by P2 Lodge President Leo Zagami and Vatican financial advisor, Danielle Del Bosco, whom Benjamin Fulford introduced Keenan to by assuring him that Del Bosco could be trusted with the DFFI. So, the Amanah is M1, and that man is Neil Keenan.

But let’s go back a little to the “Shot Heard Around the World” and directly led to the path to become Amanah.

The Affairs of the Entitled

A Trillion Here, a Trillion There

The date was November 23, 2011. If you ask many people where they were 48 years earlier on that day, they would recall where they were when the news came in about the assassination and conspiracy surrounding the murder of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

Well, in modern times, 48 years later, a bombshell struck in the form of a civil complaint in the Federal Court of the Southern District of New York. Since labelled the Trillion Dollar Lawsuit, it was the first public accusation of the underpinnings of the global financial system and the depths to which governments, leaders and even the Vatican will go to remain in charge and support the status quo.

The filing of a law suit requires a plaintiff and a defendant. It also means that something happened to somebody, and that a court will decide the outcome of the allegation. Neil Keenan had something entrusted to him stolen by what is a long list of thieves. As time has gone by, the list of the perpetrators has not just grown but escalated up to the top powers in the western hemisphere.

So when “they” stole $135

Billion USD in Federal Reserve Notes, Japan Construction Bonds and the Kennedy Bond entrusted to Neil by the Dragon Family, a great level of subterfuge took place to try and keep it quiet. This is the way of the world at the top. Rather than create, they steal. The funny thing is that this became the spark that lit the powder keg. Theft this size required a larger than normal response.

The tabling of the Federal lawsuit seeking $1 Trillion USD quite literally opened Pandora’s Box. The “they” list of defendants was a lengthy list of powerful people from many countries. Presidents, Prime Ministers etcetera. All woven together to commit these crimes behind the scenes. None of this would have ever been known if not for Neil Keenan filing the case. It turns out that there is a very detailed story about the role that each of the defendants plays in the heist and the resulting payouts from the Vatican Slush fund.

What makes Keenan’s lawsuit worth paying attention to is that it involves a mysterious June 2009 case of two Japanese citizens detained by Italy’s Border Police at the Chiasso, Italy train depot while traveling to Switzerland with 134 billion dollars in US Federal Reserve notes, bonds and other financial instruments.

FOX News $134 Billion Dollar in US Bond seized at Italian border (Video)

Keenan was then able to verify that the bonds carried by Yamaguchi and Watanabe were real, and therefore, the bonds in his possession were in fact real. He discovered that this theft of DFFI in Chiasso was primarily at the direction of Alan Greenspan and then Italian Prime Minister Berlusconi, however, it involved the vast worldwide network of Khazarian - Cabal organizations, banks and governments.

The case, as filed by the principal (Neil Keenan) claimed that $USD 134.5 billion dollars’ worth of gold was secretly given to the U.S. government in the mid-1930s

Dan McCue was the first mainstream journalist to cover this story in Courthouse News Service, a nationwide news service for lawyers and the news media. The article is entitled "Bizarre Claim for $1 Trillion" — but given that this is a real case, he was certainly interested enough to write about it.

Courthouse News Service article didn't reveal everything in Keenan's complaint, by not quoting one of the most interesting paragraphs Thousands of trillions of dollars:

Upon information and belief, these Bonds [held by the Dragon Family] have values ranging in the many Thousands of Trillions of United States Dollars, a relatively small portion of which is involved in the claims giving rise to this action.

Each of these currencies, such as the DFFI [Dragon Family Financial Instruments] involved in this action, was and remains duly registered within the Federal Reserve System — and are directly verifiable by the Federal Reserve through its efficient verification system and screening process.

"Conspiracy theory" bloggers and videographers, as well as counter agents caught wind of Keenan's Trillion Dollar RICO Lawsuit. On January 13, 2012 Financial Tyranny: Defeating the Greatest Cover -UP of All Time was published, but unfortunately was not credited to Neil F. Keenan who provided his Dragon Family Special Power Of Attorney for Global Accounts expertise, Trillion Dollar RICO Lawsuit backstory, as well as other Khazar - Cabal documented content.

Upon President Obama replacing Judge Howell (forced early retirement) and appointing his self-selected Judge as a means to thwart the case.

The new Judge Jesse Furman was brother to the former financial advisor to Obama and installed to only hear this one case.

The judge had a bit of a history of questionable conduct and given the nature of ties to the White House Neil Keenan opted to withdraw his case in 2012 with plans to file his lawsuit in international court. The weird 'coincidences' keep piling up.

2011 was a busy year for Neil Keenan. Just prior to the filing of the Trillion Dollar Lawsuit, there was a very important meeting in Europe that would effect a long overdue strategic change in world banking.

The Monaco Accords

Monaco Accord I (August 2011)

The Monaco Accord was the genesis of the Global Accounts gold-assets timeline. The decree of the Monaco Accords assembly was to begin the process of freeing the non-aligned nations, (nations worldwide) especially the Asian nations from domination and financial control by the Western oligarchy.

For the period of a week towards the end of August 2011, a secretive meeting — organized by Neil Keenan and co-hosted by very powerful officials from the East. The West was not allowed) — Breton Woods was out not in. This began the long-prepared-for task of forming a disruptive gold asset-backed, global financial system.

It was a small, but decisive beginning to what, in less than two years, would become the one hundred and eighty nation BRICS alliance (Brazil, Russia, India, China) — which has propagated into other non-aligned AIIB and CIPS systems led by Neil Keenan, again loudly brought forth to replace the Western faulty system, although there's been unsolicited influence and infiltration by the west as each lacks access to the Global Accounts.

The opposition of openly conflicting and powerful globalists and cabal interest groups raises an important, if covert, operational issue.

The gathering was a powerful invitation-only symposium, co-hosted by international Irish-American businessman, Neil Keenan, and Swiss officials. It started on dry land in the Principality of Monaco & Monte-Carlo, and then moved onto a one-hundred-sixty foot private yacht in Mediterranean international waters.

Neil was on a large yacht in the waters off Monaco to orchestrate the meeting he'd organized with the Swiss. Nations represented at the meeting in an official government capacity included Switzerland, China, Russia, Brazil, Argentina, Uruguay, Paraguay and Venezuela. Certain negative fiat-casino currency representatives were strenuously refused entry. These included the recently deposed Japanese Prime Minister, Naoto Kan, the Managing Director of the IMF, Christine Lagarde, and all members of the Khazar-Cabal Nazi-U.S. continuum (the Rothschild Rockefeller-Kissinger-Bush Syndicate).

No G7 governments were invited in an official capacity. Word of the gathering reached the Rockefellers, the pre-eminent U.S. clan of that oligarchy, who dispatched Senator Jay Rockefeller to essentially “crash” the party as an uninvited guest.

For Jay Rockefeller it was like being thrown out of his own funeral. His Rockefeller’s family syndicate having the previous year lost Europe to the

Rothschilds, and more recently lost Japan to

Asian conglomerates, he was now verbally threatened and physically blocked from entry onto the yacht to attend the Meeting, at the gangplank, by Neil Keenan.

Initially resorting to patrician Illuminati bluster, Rockefeller attempted to talk his way into the Monaco meeting. He was rebuffed. "Don't you know who I am?" he demanded. “Yes, you’re exactly the person we don’t want on this boat,” replied Neil Keenan.

After Rockefeller’s unceremonious ejection, the yacht was buzzed by Rockefeller syndicate by a Blackhawk helicopter equipped with activated listening technology and electromagnetic pulse weapons aimed at the attendees to disrupt proceedings.

Fortunately, French Mirage F1 fighter jets on reconnaissance intercepted giving an overhead warning pass by tipping their wings and the helicopters. After a second warning the helicopter rapidly retreated.

Rockefeller’s crashing rage was to no effect and was informed that this was now a brave new world for the young; old mummies like him were merely dust to be swept away. At The Monaco Accords an understanding of the attendees was created and formalized by the co-hosts of that meeting, Keenan and the Swiss Government.

What came out of the Monaco Accord that Neil organized and hosted? The end of the existing financial system underpinned by Bretton Woods, SWIFT, IMF – World Bank American Financial Hegemony. AIIB, CIPS and the foundation for the Nonaligned countries to now create a new financial structure that allows for self-determination in the East.

These are very mighty actual goals dreamed of by many, but actualized because Neil saw a solution and brought the parties together.

Monaco Accords II

There really should never have been a second Accord. Neil distinctly warned the attendees that the West, the Cabal and the Banks would say, pay and do anything to become included into the Eastern System. His forewarning fell upon deaf ears.

By the third week of September 2011, a total of eighty-seven sovereign national governments across the world had issued the Acknowledgement of Memorandum of the Agreement and had undertaken to formally sign the document at the pre-agreed moment. By the third week of December 2011, the number of committed and subscribed nations had risen to 117. By the middle of September 2013, the 178 numbers of sovereign nations for the Monaco Accords enacted the gold-backed global financial system infrastructure.

BRICS Announce $200B Challenge to World Financial Order

July 15, 2014

The fabric of the financial world was frayed and torn. It was a series of critical changes that started with the Monaco Accords to allow many countries to freely participate in an open banking and finance system without the hegemony of the Bretton Woods former powers of the West.

The first very public and major step happened when the BRICS nations — Brazil, Russia, India, China — formally introduced their long-awaited $100 billion development bank, to be headquartered in Shanghai, and a currency reserve of the same size, institutions that aim to be both competitor and antithesis to the World Bank and International Monetary Fund.

The Monaco Accords have proven to be a strategic game-changer event as it was followed by an independent world court endorsement, recognition, and given jurisdiction by the 178 nations, which has evolved into the providing the infrastructure for the subsequent BRICS alliance (Brazil, Russia, India, China), the AFIIB investment Bank and Cross-border CIPS which are fair systems and more likely to serve the cause of freedom and peaceful resolution once there is direct access to the Global Accounts Gold Assets.

The East was tired of financing the West with no say in how or where their gold and money went nor were they too sure that which had already been leased would ever come back. There is a persistent theme of competing hope. East hoping West lives up to agreements and West hoping East continue to believe their lies. It is upon this dystopian relationship that Neil forged ahead to frame a clear line between East and West banking. The development of an Accord that brought these dramatic changes in hand gave Neil an idea of where to go next. He had something the West and the Cabal did not want him to have.

Keenan not only caught the cabal bankers' irate attention by orchestrating the Monaco Accords and spawning the BRICS, AIIB and CIPS, but realizing that he had possession of the elusive Black Book (the book of codes) caused a Khazar-Cabal financial frenzy. Remember the Black Book opens up the Black Screens allowing access to verify the legal and illegal transactions of the Global Accounts assets – when, what and why.

Knowing Keenan had the Black Book in his possession perturbed the Western Bankers to the degree that they changed the codes. The new codes were issued and in fact Neil received the New Codes in his hand 5 minutes later.

He has both the old and new codes so he feels comfortable knowing the theft will not continue unnoticed and will be dealt with shortly in a swift manner by the legal and security team Neil is putting together.

Now, Neil possesses the updated Codes for the Black Book, the Book of Maklumat, The Book of Conveyance, Blue Book, Red Book, Operation Heavy Freedom, UBS Soekarno Agreement and the original 1962 Green Hilton Agreement signed by President Soekarno and President Kennedy.

As M1, President Soekarno of Indonesia was the signatory for the countries. Per the Agreement, Soekarno was to give Global Accounts 140,000 tons of gold for U.S. Treasury gold backed notes. Kennedy was assassinated 11 days after signing the Green Hilton Agreement. When Keenan re-files his Trillion Dollar RICO lawsuit these documents will all be incorporated as evidence.

The Angry Leprechaun's Naughty List

Following the White Rabbit down the hole led Alice to a weird world. The Trillion-dollar lawsuit makes Alice's adventures look sane by comparison. What follows here is a synopsis that brought out the fury of the Amanah.

It has taken down royalty, elected leaders and rattled the deep state and cabal to the core. What is even more amazing is that not one person has thanked Neil for his ever-vigilant watch over the 'system'. Talk about being scared.

South Korea

Seoul and South Korea has been a favourite plundering playground for the Elite Cabal for decades as originally it had hundreds of small hidden bunkers of hoarded Japanese assets that were stolen from China and stored in Korea so that Japanese rulers and politicians could not get their hands on them to pilfer from.

With the US (Rockefellers) conquering Japan (the Rockefellers used to OWN the Japanese Central Bank - until recently) and South Korea, the US Armed Forces have been responsible for looting these stores since WWII principally for financing their presence in the country and for financing Generals, Black Budget Operations and Korean politicians.

This was exposed by Neil as one of the US Bases is even operating an illegal casino on Base and is being used to launder bunker currencies and gold.

But that was small potatoes compared to Neil's exposure of the nefarious dealings of two of the past South Korean,

Park Chung Hee and Presidents later his daughter, Park Geun-hye, who is now in jail thanks in part to Neil and company. Park Geun-hye was easy picking for Neil as she blatantly stole gold bars from the Family's bunkers, melted them down into smaller bars and was "instructed" to deposit 250,000 tons of them onto the USS George Washington Aircraft Carrier parked in Seoul's harbour.

Neil notified the Golden Dragon Family to surround the ship and they placed their satellites overhead to track any movements. The ship left empty, and Park Geun-hye was impeached and went to jail on less embarrassing charges.

The exposure of her father came later when Neil found out that Park Chung Hee had cleaned out two major bunkers and stashed the assets in banks in a Montana Indian Reservation.

This multi-trillion-dollar stash (estimated at up to USD 26 Trillion) is currently managed by a group called the International Reserve Depository Bank (IRDB) headed by Dennis Lambert, several South Korean trustees, and an Indian Reservation representative. This group of thieves, of course, cannot move these assets off the Reservation, but Neil revealed their latest plot was to "loan the money back to South Korea!" Mr. Lambert really didn't like being in the spotlight but really knows how to cuss according to Neil.

Now, how about returning the assets to the rightful Owners or go to jail? Stay tuned Dennis, Neil has not forgotten about your thieving ass.

The latest multi-pronged attack by the Cabal on South Korea began just prior to the last 2019 G20 Summit in Osaka, Japan.

Prior to the Summit Prince Andrew shows up from the UK. Later, former US President George W. Bush came knocking. Then Saudi Arabian Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman also came looking for gold to fill his pockets. And then, in the shadows of the Summit was a tussle going on between Japanese, Chinese, Taiwanese and US interests all vying for bunker assets. And at the top of it all was Japanese Prime Minister Shinzo

Abe, who was tasked by the Cabal to assure that the Korean looting would take place. He failed miserably due to Neil's timely intervention. This triggered a last-ditch effort by the Israeli Khazarians who then sent the Israeli President Reuven Rivlin in to make final threats and demands which were also unsuccessful.

Congratulations to South Korean President Moon Jae-in for deciding not to go to jail and be publicly humiliated by a Keenan blast. Japan's Prime Minister Shinzo Abe for his failure to deliver (because of Neil being in his face) has RESIGNED.

Neil has exposed even more of South Korean shenanigans, but the list above just shows the intense level of the fight. Who else has stood before? Who has championed for the People?

December 2016 represented a seismic shift in world politics. Donald J Trump had been President -elect for a month in the United States, and the deep state had to start covering their tracks. Turns out they just shifted gears to try and illegally acquire as much as possible before the inauguration.

Neil used the intermediate timeframe to acquire an abundance of information that would prove that the deep state was in fact attempting to commit the Third Hijacking of the Western Financial System.

The first two were Bretton Woods 1 and 2. And now Neil laid out the 3rd attempt to steal all financial assets in the West, as well as, the East prior to the inauguration of President Trump on January 20th.

Mr. Yoshiaki Kobayashi was attempting to steal from the bunkers in South Korea working with the Japanese Imperial Court and is the Emperor's right hand man in this attempted theft.

Neil had dealt with Kobayashi before and this time was the same song as the first. He was making the same outrageous claims such as that the Dragon Family does not exist, and that they are working with Trump while having his blessing.

It is true that they were using the FED and Agencies as stated and alongside the FED's are the open hands of the Clinton's, the Obama's, the Bush family, the Queen of England and the Japanese Royal family.

In this (and later) rounds they were attempting to purchase many different currencies from Korean bunkers stored there from Family gold leases, and we are not talking about small volumes of legal CASH either.

What was at stake was hundreds of Trillions of Dollars worth of currencies; (including as many Japanese Yen as they could acquire) and possibly more – Quintillions!

You must remember that the Bunkers are managed by Holders – not Depositors, and the Depositors own the assets and the assets are registered in the Bank for International Settlements (BIS) in the names of the Depositors.

All those serial numbers on the currencies are “registered” – especially those in series on large pallets and made as international debt payments. Therefore with Guardians, Holders, Keepers etc. the assets should be well protected and preserved, but were they?

It seems that under the cover of US elections, these currency stashes were about to be “given away” at 20% to 30% percent of their market value, thereby eliminating the debt owed by the nations that were lined up to buy this stolen property back.

In other words these Buyers were attempting to buy up their own debt at a huge discount and others as well, thereby putting themselves in the driver’s seat relating to the debt of other foreign nations.

The Elders who were making such deals were (and still are) putting the fragile Global Financial System into a seriously risky status. This is enough to change the Global Financial System and put it into financial chaos.

Neil brought this to the attention of the Elders, and Several International Nations. He even told them about the casino on the US Military base in Japan that they were using to launder the money and bring it “over the wall” and into the hands of the Deep State Military Industrial Complex.

The officers overseeing this were personally rewarded through the Casino in order to ensure their compliance and continued efforts.

Neil showed that they will stop at nothing to steal what is not theirs through any methods possible, and create an elegant dystopian fabric of lies to cover it. Easy to do when you also control the media.

Thank you, Neil. I wonder when someone official is going to thank you for that. Probably never.

They just keep planning to take more in other ways, and the population sit in front of the television drinking beer and being entertained.

Barry

It is without a doubt, one of the strangest strings of time in American history.

Barry Soetoro was born to a Marxist mother and raised in Indonesia as a step son who 10 years later moved with his now twice divorced mother back to the USA. Changing his name to Barack Obama he went from being a lawyer with no public or private practice to representing labour and community groups on the south side of Chicago. From there, he went to Washington to do great harm not only to the United States but also the world.

For this they gave him the Nobel Prize. Strange indeed. Neil knew that after digging to find the buried loose threads that there was going to be some trouble.

Charleston

October 21, 2013

Four Top Generals with The Highest Clearance In The United States Stood Up For Us And Lost Their Jobs And Support For Their Family, October 21, 2013. These patriots stopped a plot to detonate nuclear warheads in South Carolina and another US location – ordered through Obama by his handlers. This is an act of treason of the highest magnitude.

It was Neil who alerted the nation of Obama's attempt to nuke Charleston, South Carolina in a detailed post and video in 2013. On Obama's instructions two nuclear bombs were (not officially signed out but) removed from their arsenal in Fort Hood, Texas and transported to a military base near Charleston from where they were to be dropped on Charleston as a "false flag" event used to start WWII and instigate Martial Law in the US.

Neil's high-level connection with and contacts within the New York City financial world alerted him prior to this that there was a mass exodus from Manhattan to Stamford Connecticut. These were all the major banks, hedge funds and trading firms. In essence the infrastructure had been developed to build a redundant system.

When Obama and Biden emerged from their new deep underground Washington bunker they expected to see 30 million dead Americans and huge devastation.

Instead, there was nothing – as an Air Force General and Navy Admiral in charge of nuclear weapons had the bombs flown 620 miles offshore and detonated them in the mid Atlantic Ocean (seismic records confirm.)

For their heroic service to the nation and the world... Obama fired them and two other Admirals on phony charges. Neil was the first to break this intelligence which has created a storm of "conspiracy bunkum" denials all over the Internet.

Now, nine years later Neil has not heard a thank you from any government official. Saving 23-25 million lives all along the East Coast of the United States was not enough? Neil running interference versus Barry was far from over.

Thailand

Thailand was another happy hunting ground for the Cabal and Obama, but without much luck. Thailand has amassed tons of gold which generally one can buy, but most often you will never see your money (or gold) again, and even if you get your gold (like in China) you will never be able to take it out of the country.

Of course, President Obama got a whiff of the scent of Thai Gold and sent a US Fleet into the Gulf of Thailand as a blockade threat. Neil informed the Family about what was going on and what they should do to handle the Thai Royalty and make Obama back down.

Obama wasn't through with Thailand quite yet. Do you remember that Obama gave Billions of Dollars to IRAN supposedly for Iran to stop making nuclear weapons? But what Neil uncovered was the backroom deal where the son of the Shah of Iran, Anwar, tried to use those US Dollars to purchase 10,000 tons of Thai Gold.

The Shah did have a small gold stash deposited with the King of Thailand, so there was some legitimacy to the deal by Anwar, however, the gold was to be used to fill the Iranian coffers during the sanction period and possibly bring Anwar back into power as the new Shah. Neil's postings, key notifications and instructions shot down that plot too as the Family's satellites were watching everything.

There were other reports that US Special Forces raided a large mansion in Southern Thailand that was leased by Obama, where a large stash of gold and weapons were seized. Southern Thailand is predominantly Muslim, so you can figure out what Obama and his “Brotherhood” friends were plotting.

So Neil’s ‘lighting up’ of Thailand has kept Obama and his handlers’ sticky fingers out of that cookie jar.

Slick Willie and the Gang

August 2014 was a very busy month for Neil Keenan and team. After successfully thwarting Barry “Barack” Soetoro and Biden from dropping Nuclear missiles on Charleston, Neil learned that a previously discovered plan was coming to fruition. This one was loaded with ‘A’ list leaders including Japan, America, Colombian drug cartel money and George Soros.

The plan Neil uncovered went like this.

The Emperor of Japan has a sister who is married to an Indonesian General. She came to Indonesia to meet up with the Bill Clinton / Hillary Clinton team that included Armitage and Soros. They in turn were meeting with two Elders to negotiate a deal that would bring big money into Indonesia and create and orchestrated chaos among the people and lead to a dramatic government overhaul. $6 Trillion USD that would be in the hands of the Elders, and with the assistance of the Clinton controlled Arkansas Foundation as well as the Soros / Armitage team would assassinate the Vice-President of Indonesia.

The money was coming from Colombian Drug Cartel. The Colombian cartels did not want the Clintons to do this, and were heavily against their money and group’s involvement.

The end of the plan was that the Brother-in-law of the Japanese Emperor (an Indonesian General) would be made head of the resulting post chaos martial law type government, and with the further assistance of the participating Elders, would clean out the bunkers and warehouses in Indonesia.

Strip them of the wealth that exceeds a number. They also would attempt to seize control of the Global Collateral Accounts.

Neil was in touch with the details and drew up a series of action plans. The Japanese military were involved to prevent anyone from bringing harm to the Emperor's sister while on the Indonesian islands.

The Dragon Family provided their resources including satellite and surveillance equipment to keep track of the Japanese Emperor's sister, Armitage and Soros team and the Elders involved. Neil was a signatory to the arrest warrants.

Slick Willie called Neil personally from the USA to ask him to stand out of the way of this and not get involved.

Due to the fact that Neil was active in representing and protecting these assets of the Indonesian Elders and Dragon Family assets – the cabal were thwarted from acquiring an unlimited supply of gold and financing their very dark plans for all humanity. Neil Francis Keenan scared them off.

Just like he did in scaring George Soros with his hidden jungle terrorist training camp where they exchanged gunfire. It is most unfortunate Neil ran out of ammo when he had a clean shot. There would have been much rejoicing in the streets all over the world.

Malaysia

Malaysia has been a fruitless folly for the Cabal with JP Morgan Bank instrumental in "setting up" the sovereign 1 Malaysian Development Bank (1MDB) as a Clinton Foundation-style slush fund for the former Malaysian Prime Minister, Najib Razak and his cronies. When Neil found out the depth of this scandal, he never let go. He uncovered shady deals, one after another.

Neil's digging turned over more than just Najib and friends using 1MDB money to buy luxury hotels, finance Hollywood movies and mega yachts – or financing Najib's own re-election campaigns.

What Neil ousted were major players involved in multiple scams that Najib hatched to save his own sorry ass.

Najib's first botched attempt was to negotiate with Bong Bong Marcos concerning the conversion of his offshore USD $16.0 Trillion stashed in Labuan, Malaysia banks. Bong Bong was the son of the CIA controlled Ferdinand Marcos and had no authority to represent either the government nor any GCA bunkers.

At a conversion rate of MR 4.5 : 1 USD old Najib would easily cover his debts and Bong Bong would OWN MALAYSIA (and could sell it to whoever he would like!) Neil squelched that deal real quick and embarrassed Bong Bong for not helping his own county first.

Next Najib and friends turned to Alfredo Saurin and the fake Antonio Santiago Martin (ASM) (who was the fake M1). This scam involved 1.0 million metric tons of Thai gold that also involved approvals (% shares) for the FED's Chair, Janet Yellin, and the Bank of England's Chairman, Mark Carney.

When Neil turned the lights on in that room, all the rats ran away from the deal. Since then Saurin died, Yellin and Carney have retired from their posts only to assume new ones as Secretary of the Treasury US and Brookfield Asset Management (respectively) and ASM is on the run from authorities. Neil keeps a close eye on them.

With doors closing in on Najib, his last resort effort was the "Dead Man Walking Caper" where he tried to steal funds from a wealthy Malaysian Trustee who had authority over a large trust account in UBS Bank in Switzerland.

The "Dead Man Walking" is a man by the name of Mr. Ablen Ibram Hamid, who has already filed his legal case with The International Court of Justice in The Hague, ("ICJ") not only to assert his rights on all of his assets but to also instigate actions against the various persons and parties that have already misused some of those assets and those that attempted to steal the rest of his assets held by UBS in Switzerland by officially declaring him “Dead” (by the Minister of Home Affairs issuing a Death Certificate) and Najib being declared the sole Executor of the Estate under the false will and testament submitted to UBS.

Mr. Ablen became a “Dead Man Walking” when the former Deputy Finance Minister handed these official letters to UBS top officials (who had spoken to Mr. Ablen only days before).

The Deputy Finance Minister initially did not know the illegality of the contents of the letters, but when he found out he immediately resigned his post upon returning.

Neil spoke with and was deposed three times in providing the Malaysian Parliament with evidence and information that allowed Parliament to take drastic and immediate action in rectifying the situation.

Mr. Ablen’s rights with respect to the ownership of the said assets have already been confirmed by the ICJ and during the verification and assessment of his assets with the ICJ, it was also found that a portion of his funds had been transferred to “PetroSaudi” without the permission or knowledge of Mr. Ablen and as such, details of this transaction were also requested from UBS by the ICJ.

PetroSaudi is one of the major money laundering companies involved in the 1MDB case.

In the end Justice will be achieved and those that have committed offenses can be charged and the necessary actions taken against them with a clear conscience and without any doubts. This will then clear the way for the return of monies and assets back to the MALAYSIAN PEOPLE where they belong. Thanks to Neil Keenan being on the lookout.

In fact as of writing this, Neil is in discussion with the Malaysian government again about a larger bigger scandal perpetrated by UBS bank, their Malaysian subordinates and the previous government administration.

This separate set of illegal activity shows that there is persistence by western aligned interests in seeking every avenue possible to illegally obtain what is not theirs.

So long as Neil is able to operate – they stand no chance.

Neil is in possession of the forensic evidence apparently that show the origination of the wire transfers from UBS to HSBC and back. This was a routine behind the scenes quid pro quo procedure called hygienics. From this transfer back, UBS sent it out to Malaysian banks involved.

The Queens Part 1

Bilderberg Beatrix

The Cabal never quit and keep attempting to impose their will on smaller nations. Former Queen Beatrix of The Netherlands is a good example: After she screwed up a perfectly good financial transaction in 2012, one that would have benefited not only the Dutch Royal Family but the people of The Netherlands as well.

The greedy old woman that is Beatrix, showed her ineptitude by bungling the aforementioned deal. The old witch now is attempting to deceive President Jokowi and the Nation of Indonesia – with what Beatrix and her circus are calling a “Debt Repayment”.

In other words, Beatrix – a representative of the family that created the Bilderberg Group – the biggest group of thieves on the planet- who have just had their asses handed to them by way of the triumphs of both Nigel Farage and Donald J. Trump (2016), are now trying it on again in a different way.

The establishment are making a last-ditch attempt to steal someone else’s gold by propping up this incompetent old woman, Beatrix, and pushing her into the fray. However, when the people of the Netherlands eventually learn and have a firm understanding that their (former) Queen literally screwed them – they just might become unruly.

On the other side of the coin and in an earlier endeavour, Queen Elizabeth II had Beatrix effectively boxed in at all times. You see, Liz Windsor had her intelligence underlings listening in to everything that was going on at all times.

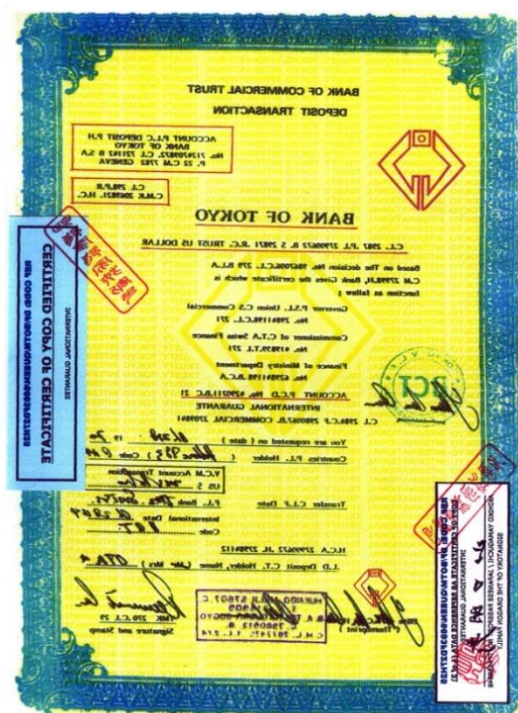

When Beatrix called out to discuss the Certificate of Deposit, Queen Elizabeth II and her intelligence flunkies were listening in on everything as it was being planned.

Here we have the Globalists – all in favour of the New World Order and constantly screwing one another in order to be the fox that runs the henhouse. In the earlier deal noted above (the one that Beatrix ruined with her greed) everything had been initiated by Neil Keenan and Dragon Family Signatory, Akihiko Yamaguchi.

Neil Keenan held unlimited Power of Attorney which enabled the transaction to take place, along with of course Yamaguchi, to sign off on the Certificate of Deposit. But this is not the way it was to play out.

Neil recollects how events transpired:

"This could have been a very easy transaction to complete but the greed of the monsters that actually ruled our planet (who are now on their way out and not fast enough) surfaced and it became a fight between families that are supposedly tied into one another by blood.

So much for relations. Then again, they are a special ugly kind of dog or horse, aren't they?

When I initially contacted Queen Beatrix, I made it clear that her mother (Queen Juliana) had been the Nominee over a CD (Certificate of Deposit) with a value of 2.13 trillion USD (see the documentation below).

I explained to her that the CD was in the Bank of Tokyo Mitsubishi, and an agreement had been reached between her Mother and the Dragon Family.

It emerged that Queen Beatrix had no knowledge of any such transaction, nor of her Mother being named Nominee – in not just this transaction but other transactions as well.

In this regard the CD had long ago matured and should have been capitalized on but Queen Juliana had passed away without leaving any notice to her daughter, (soon to be Queen) and this is where it was left until the Signatory of the Dragon Family (Yamaguchi) and myself brought it forward to the Bilderberg leader (not that I knew that at the time as this was before I was well versed in the Cabal).

Queen Juliana's Mother and Father had created the hideously vulgar Bilderberg Group, whose plans were to basically take over this planet with a New World Order. This has now been outlined in many a document. It was at this point in the proceedings that the machinations of evil intent took place.

Queen Beatrix, upon learning that such a CD had existed and had matured, rather than spending a few minutes learning that the real Depositors were the Dragon Family, jumped the gun and sent her son (now King) Willem Alexander to Tokyo to see if he could abscond with the CD without anyone receiving any payments other than herself.

As already noted, Queen Elizabeth II was well aware of this enterprise and had her intelligence organizations listening in on Beatrix and her staff. Elizabeth's people were well aware of Willem-Alexander's departure for Tokyo and so she had her son Prince Charles follow Willem Alexander.

Upon arrival, Willem-Alexander acquired the necessary information but was told that they could do nothing without the release of the depositors, therefore he could not make claim to the CD, although he attempted to.

Given that Willem-Alexander had no luck, and having 'left the door open', Charles decided to try his luck using his mother's name, (The Queen of England) only to be informed that the Windsors were not involved in said transaction in any way, shape or form.

Both had attempted to deceive not only the Dragon Family and each other, but their nations as well.

The Dutch Royal Family was to earn 3% of said value (2.13 Trillion USD) and the Dutch

One could wonder what foreign debt this could possibly be, when in fact the Dutch raped Indonesia as much as could be – including the many deaths in West Papua over gold. If anything, the West never placed any of their own assets into any bunkers in the East, other than what they owed for the leased gold-backing for their own currencies.

Neil has never seen nor heard anything of any debt owed to the Dutch – but just the opposite. These families attempt to continuously collect on the assets belonging to the depositors within the World Bank, BIS and IMF. They reach out relentlessly, trying to take whatever does not belong to them with the little time they have left – as they are being brought to their knees; their deceptions are being exposed to the people of the planet.

These families have no right to anything! If Queen Juliana was a Nominee and left no will nor testament detailing such, then no one will be as kind as Yamaguchi and the Dragon Family were, in offering her the piece her mother would have received for being the Nominee for the Certificate of Deposit.

What is really happening now is that the Dutch “Royalty” are attempting to deceive President Jokowi – and I doubt that the Indonesian gentleman President would stoop so low as to grant them their wishes, as he knows that even the Indonesian President does not own the Certificate of Deposit. Nor do the Holders own the Certificate of Deposit.

Only the Depositors own the Certificate of Deposit.

Should any metals or paper assets leave Indonesia – or anywhere – they will find Neil Francis Keenan waiting for them. He will stop them time and time again.

The Queens Part 2

QinetiQ Elizabeth

The British monarchy controls QinetiQ Group Plc (UK) and SERCO (UK) – two British companies with over $18 billion in U.S. Internet, Navy, Army, Space, Financial Intelligence and bio-warfare contracts – QinetiQ UK adjoins premises with The Pirbright Institute – the patent holder of the Coronavirus (COVID-19).

All of this only came to light and was made public because of Neil Keenan and Team K working tirelessly to get to the truth. Saving humanity with almost never a thank you.

Connecting the dots and proving that the conspiracy is fact linking the Queen, Fauci, Gates, the IMF, the World Economic Forum to a sinister plot to eliminate 90 percent of the world’s population.

These are nasty and pathetic examples of what are supposed to be enlightened leaders and rulers. How nasty?

Well before this news was released by Neil and his Group K team, there were several bombshells that never got the attention they deserved on the topic of engineered sociology.

An Apple a Day

July 2018, Neil posted a scathing piece on vaccines and how dangerous they really are based on improper testing, harmful ingredients (including aborted human fetal tissues), and poor-quality control where batches produced differ seriously and are often contaminated with other viruses, bacteria and fungi that cause all kinds of harmful side-effects.

This initially Rockefeller-funded industry is designed to kill humans slowly at a PROFIT. When the COVID scandemic started, Neil was the first to expose Bill Gates as the financier of the CDC (a private foreign owned corporation headed by Gates's college roommate Dr. Fauci) and the World Health Organization (WHO).

Bill Gates also owned his own vaccine research and production labs and financed others like QuinteQ and Pirbright Institute in the UK (majority owned by the Queen of England) who received PATENTS for the COVID VIRUS and the VACCINE in September 2019!

When you have taken a fresh look at the evidence and the exposed threads of this conspiracy, suddenly there is no potential use of the word coincidence. Impossible.

Now add this from what actually happened in Wuhan as reported by Neil in addition to the news released from Germany about the fact that the virus was entirely human engineered. Suddenly conspiracy fact is reality. The truth will indeed out.

Anyone want to thank him yet? I do. So how do you want this to end? Help Neil or keep rearranging the deck chairs on the Titanic?

Pirates and Thieves

Along the route to becoming the Amanah, Neil seems to have uncovered both good and bad in the sphere of finance, technology, sociology and the body politic.

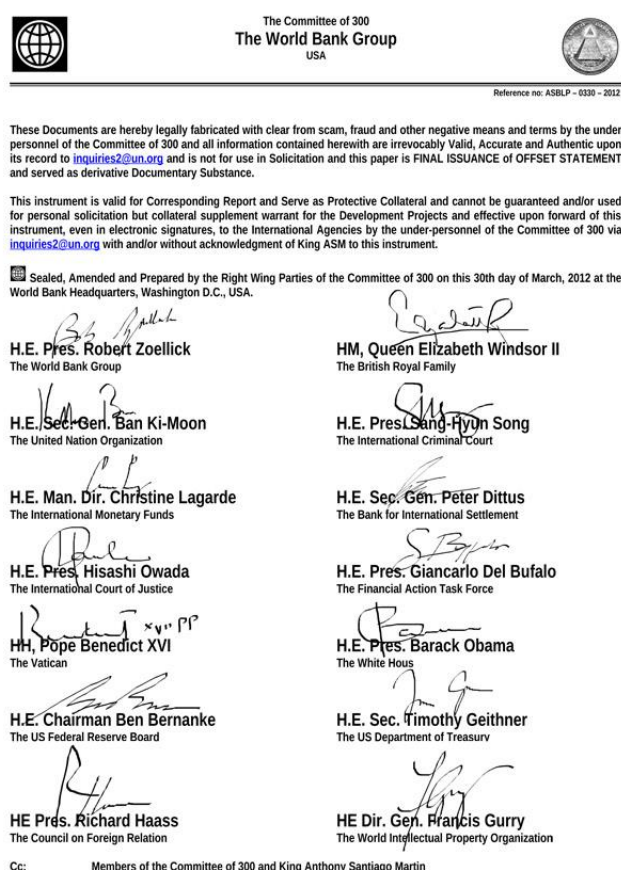

It is interesting that among the bad is a larger concerted conspiracy by large scale organizations that carry out an agenda that does not include a lot of people inhabiting the world.

There are other layers below that upper tier that have an agenda peculiar to a single stream or cause. Then there is the lower layer that are simply putting in time. Neil has had a run in with each layer, and come out the other side a much wider man.

The low level thieves, truly must be idiots. All you have to do is type in their name and type Neil Keenan's name into your favourite search engine and reap the result. Exposed, humiliated, arrested.

I'm not sure Neil goes looking for them, but he certainly has no problem disposing of them. Why is it that politically powerful people end up endorsing or becoming ensnared in the machinations of these people? Maybe Neil can one day write about that, since it seems that he alone is exposing these thieves and also who has endorsed them.

Committee of 300 – Spiritual White Boy – Red Dragon

Formed by the World Bank, itself the epitome of oppression and corruption around the world, the sole purpose of the Committee of 300 was to justify (in their parlance – legalize) theft of money from the Global Accounts. How much money? Trillions of dollars.

The signatory page of the Agreement of the Committee shown here includes some powerful people. It would seem to be a singular document that proves the size of conspiracy committed is truly global and deliberate to defraud not just the Dragon Family, but many other parties that Neil is now the Amanah for.

Here is the very abbreviated version of context.

Ferdinand Markos was put into power as President of the Philippines by the CIA. After the arrest and detainment of President Soekarno in Indonesia (also efforted by the CIA in overthrowing his legitimate reign). Markos declared himself the new M1. He did so at the behest of the Agency, in order to legitimize a concerted and organized series of thefts of Global Accounts through the World Bank.

Son - Bo Mikael Lindstrom Fake Ambassador

Father - Mikael Lindstrom
Real Ambassador

Specific reference is made specifically to Chinese Red Dragon Family. Well, turns out that there was a problem on that front too.

Bo Mikael Lindstrom, son of Mikael Lindstrom (the real Ambassador for Norway).

Turns out that Spiritual White Boy and Red Dragon had a lot in common, starting with not being real. Rather than be discouraged by these inconvenient truths, they seemed to spend a lot of time each weaving complicated tapestries of fraud and theft of funds from Global Accounts, governments etc.

To avoid the appearance of being the greedy gatekeeper Markos created a fake persona to act as the signatory authority for the newly formed Committee. This persona was thereafter referred to as Spiritual White Boy. Officially titled as King Anthony Santiago Martin, the Committee and Markos had created a fall guy, and a layer of culpable deniability.

So, the World Bank want to steal the funds, and share them with a lengthy list of interested parties. Included in this Agreement is some interesting associations. Each of these people is the quintessential definition of forthright and stand-up members of society you ask? Not so much it turns out.

Take a look at the hand written notations on the left of the above image. These are the associated names and initials utilized by the Red Dragon Family Ambassador. The Red Dragon Family is a thing of fiction. Created by the son of a real Ambassador of Norway to Indonesia, Japan and China respectively for a period of 14

So a legitimate legal entity, creates an elaborate and involved group with a fake signatory identity to and to work alongside other fake groups like the Red Dragon Family.

Who uncovered all of this? Neil Francis Keenan and his team. They dismantled the original Spiritual White Boy and the five subsequent replacements recruited and trained by the CIA. Neil and his team uncovered the fake family of the Red Dragon too.

But this is not where it ends apparently. Neil indicated that thieves persist even when exposed. Take for example Benjamin Fulford facilitating the theft of the Dragon Family notes from Neil. Now the Red Dragon has reappeared as working with Benjamin Fulford. Maybe the time is coming when Neil will no longer act to save that scumbag from government agents.

How many more times does Neil need to expose this to the world before the appropriate actions are being taken to clean society of this filth? One man and a small team of dedicated people finding truth. Nothing but the sound of silence from the world.

Catnip

After having just exchanged gunfire in the jungles of Indonesia with George Soros at his latest humanitarian efforts (Soros attended a camp in Indonesia where he was funding the training of terrorists), Neil received an invitation from the elite of the Cabal to meet and discuss what would be financial considerations that would stop Neil from further exposing and disrupting their activities.

Knowing what he was walking into, Neil listened to their bribe offer, and responded in kind with the evidence and weapons he had at his disposal to eliminate their empire building activities. When the rhetoric and bantering appeared to reach its peak between Neil and Evelyn de Rothschild, well what happened next is legend.

Neil turned his back to the table full of directors and associates of Evelyn, reached into his pocket and suddenly threw something out onto the table. It was a bag of Catnip. People scattered, some fell over in their chairs, others ducked under the table.

Evelyn apparently leaned back and roared with laughter, immediately understanding the humour but also the courage of conviction that Neil had just displayed.

These Central Bankers were there to bribe Neil, and he responded by telling them that their offer was nothing more than an illusory drug.

Neil left the meeting and immediately sent out a post to the world detailing the incident, and warning everyone that the enemy was in fact ramping up their efforts for global control.

Now the dialogue doesn't end there between Neil and Evelyn. In fact, there have been a number of personal meetings with new offers approaching the $15 billion level. Phone calls aplenty, sometimes cordial, sometimes less so.

Neil has indicated a number of times if this was a dialogue between him and Jacob (Evelyn's predecessor) it would have been a grenade he would have tossed onto the table that day in London. Nothing but a vile filled demon according Neil. I am sure that there is a genuine sense of sadness over the sudden departure at 9

Takes courage on a global scale. Gunfights with Soros training terrorists followed by walking into the corporate Banking Jungle and mocking them, Neil is one of a kind indeed. Taking on the small thieves and the zealots is not the limit of Neil's purview- he also goes big game hunting for the Titans.

Elite Fascism

Neil's exposure and uncovering in the complexities of the theft of the Dragon Family Financial Instruments (which was the precursor to the Trillion-dollar lawsuit) was to bring about a wave of discovery into this group. His focus started with Giancarlo Bruno, who is Head of Financial Institutions, Member of the Executive Committee, World Economic Forum LLC.

Now that slimy thief, reports to Klaus Schwab. He is the Founder and Executive Chairman of World Economic Forum LLC. Notice who else is on the Board?

Christine Lagarde. She was also on the Board for the Bank for International Settlements as Chair. She was also former Finance Minister for the Republic of France and more recently Head of the EU Central Bank.

Neil has had a number of run-ins with this trio of elite fascist thieves. Globalism through governance and corporations. Individually and collectively, they are the sickest people on the planet. So how do LLC corporate structures run society? They provide money throughout their tentacled connections to foundations they created.

Their wealth itself comes from not just commitments of the Davos crowd, but from illegal access to financial instruments held by the World Bank.

In order to make it all work, albeit illegally, there must be a union of the conspirators. This violation of benefitting despite not being the depositor of record is a mere inconvenience. They have teams of people that work around the rules in place.

Since they also bribe governments and bestow “free money” upon them, they now cross the Rubicon. Corporate Globalism now drives government policies.

How do we know this? Neil Keenan and his team have taken these thieves to task many times, and in so doing he laid out their plans and their connections. History of the confrontation sometimes comes as a result of personal confrontation too.

Ask Christine Lagarde and her IMF team about having breakfast in a 2015 conference in Indonesia.

All Neil had to say that was good is that she is impeccably dressed. The rest about her, not so much.

Then there is the man that started it all, Giancarlo Bruno. Bruno admits the theft of the Dragon Family Federal Reserve Notes, through offering Neil $100 million to “Go away and forget about it”.

In the words of Neil, Bruno has a greater chance of seeing God than Neil walking away. A fairer bet will simply be that the end will be coming for Bruno in the most spectacular of fashions when the Trillion-dollar lawsuit gets refiled in International Court. He will lose everything he has, as well as his husband.

Yet the best remains the pleasure one takes in going after the top of the evil empire. Klaus Schwab and Lord Malloch Browne. Schwab is an interesting social democrat.

Like other famous Social Democrat fascists from Germany’s fairly recent history, everything about WEF and Schwab is itself a genius marketing job.

These people, and specifically this person are not what they pretend to be. They are not humanitarian, nor sustainability consultants, nor technological investors for the betterment of humanity. They most certainly do not generate wealth. They create nothing except the infrastructure to destroy humanity. This is neither hyperbole nor rhetoric. Neil and his team have done a lot of homework.

To start, they violate their own corporate charter that clearly states: "The World Economic Forum is an independent international organization committed to improving the state of the world by engaging business, political, academic and other leaders of society to shape global, regional and industry agendas. Incorporated as a not-for-profit foundation in 1971, and headquartered in Geneva, Switzerland, the Forum is tied to no political, partisan or national interests."

Turns out this is a complete lie. Pretty much like everything they print or do. The above was fact checked by Neil and his team. But to get to this point one needs to have context.

Born in Switzerland, and raised in Ravensburg Germany (the first place that eugenics was practised) under the supervision of his father, the executive director of Escher Wyss (German company that made secret nuclear bomb components for Hitler) came to himself become a director of the company.

Ravensburg was also the hub for the movement of stolen Nazi and Japanese gold to be directed to the Bank For International Settlements into Switzerland offices in Bern, Basel and Zurich.

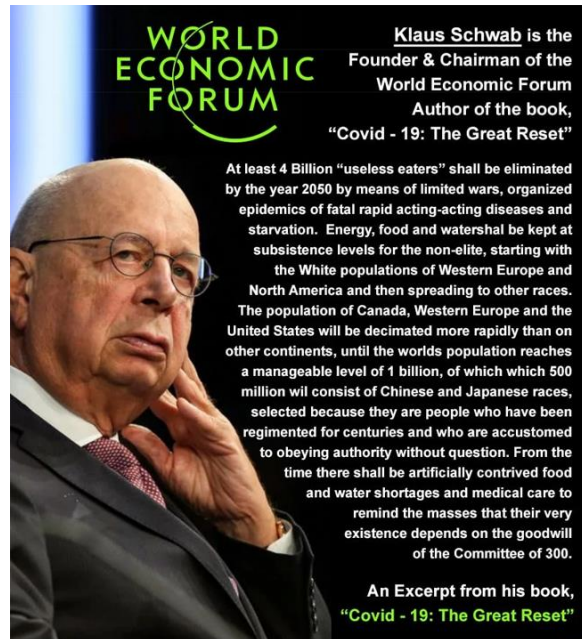

The latter matters because that was under the approval and supervision of the OSS and its descendent agency the CIA and MI6 (British Intelligence). It is more involved than this simplification but ties also go the British Pilgrims Society, Red Cross International.

The direct links to illegal international profiting from the Marshal Plan included all corporations held by or represented with the Schwab interests. The gold gateway arrangement of moving gold to Switzerland was so profitable it is likely that none of their endeavours would need to be making money.

Klaus starts publishing papers and theories in addition to authoring books that present a different view of how the world should move forward.

The sustainability part of the WEF mandate comes into play. They want to enact the 2021 and 2030 plan to eliminate 90% of the worlds population. He spells this out in subsequent books including the Great Reset, Covid 19 and other fascist / globalist crap.

Here is where Neil and his team did their homework. Covid 19 patent issued to Pirbright in 2018.

Pirbright was owned by some interesting names including QinetiQ (QE2) Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, Wellcome Trust (itself financed by Lord Pirbright in 1893 – a staunch colonialist that made money in South Africa Boer war, Apartheid etc. – and committed genocide level PHARMACEUTICAL experimentation).

Having already released his book Covid 19: Build Back Better and the Great Reset, Keenan and team started to expose all these linkages as well as take direct aim at this Nazi. It's far far away from being over. But Neil introduced us to Klaus 'Anal' Schwab's boss, and he is not afraid to take the war to this sicko either.

The fact that Neil is keeping us in the dark on what exactly he is up to now will itself be a fascinating tale. It would be nice to see the people start to actually help that have the ability to do so.

Just how much more Neil can do alone or with his meager team is unclear and unsettling to be truthful.

March on Don Quixote!
